FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Charlottesville Redevelopment and Housing Authority receives $50,000 from Sentara Health to support economic opportunities for low-income public housing residents.

Funding supports collaborative partnership with Sentara Health

Charlottesville, VA (August 28, 2023) — The Charlottesville Redevelopment and Housing Authority (CRHA), is pleased to announce a generous grant award of $50,000 from Sentara Health to assist with expanding their Resident Services program to better meet the needs of low-income community members.

The $50,000 donation from Sentara will be utilized to support CRHA's growing Resident Services Department. Sentara's contribution is going towards training and hiring a low-income person as CRHA's Resident Services Assistant. This training position will help to expand CRHA's community outreach efforts and workforce programs.

This contribution from Sentara reinforces their shared commitment to creating healthier communities through partnerships with organizations and individuals. Please direct any questions to matthewsk@cvillerha.com.
